

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

Commercial Tour Entrance Fees – Through 2015

A commercial tour consists of one or more persons traveling on an itinerary that has been packaged, priced or sold for leisure/recreational purposes by an organization that realizes financial gain through the provision of the service.

Tier	National Park Unit	Sedan* (1-6 seats)	Van (7-15 seats)	Mini-Bus (16-25 seats)	Motor Coach (26+ seats)

IV	All other vehicle-based fee parks	$25 + (*)	$40	$60	$100

Commercial fees are based on seating capacity, not occupancy. The seating capacity is based on the manufacturer's original designed capacity of the vehicle, not on the number of passengers in the vehicle or the passenger capacity of the vehicle after any subsequent retrofitting. Passenger capacity excludes the driver.

Notations: (*) For commercial sedans, the fee is the legislatively required minimum $25 commercial tour fee plus the single-visit per person fee for each passenger. Seat count does not include the driver.

() [Zion NP] An additional $15 permit fee is charged for the required tunnel escort of large vehicles through the Zion Tunnel. For additional information, go to the park website at <http://www.nps.gov/zion/planyourvisit/commercial-tours.htm>.

NOTE: For confirmation of the commercial entrance fees listed above, and for information regarding noncommercial fees and single visit per person fees go to the National Park Service website at www.nps.gov and select the website(s) for the park(s) you plan to visit.
